

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is an outrage and a danger to democracy in America. What ever happened to the Fairness Doctrine?

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair is likely violating campaign finance laws by making a contribution to the Bush campaign. why isn't the FCC taking steps to revoke their license?

Thank you.
